NOTES FOR CONTRIBUTORS

SOUTH INDIA JOURNAL OF SOCIAL SCIENCES
(Regd. Office: 4-53-1, Law sons Bay Colony, Visakhapatnam – 530 017)
Editor: Prof. K.S. Chalam

The South India Journal of Social Sciences is the official journal of A.P. Academy of Social Sciences, an organization registered under society’s Act.

The Journal is a professional forum to which both social scientists including sociologists, economists, political scientists, public administrators, historians, educationists, psychologists, etc., and practitioners around the world are invited to share their research and experience in the area of social, political, economic, cultural and related issues. The Journal publishes research papers of high quality on any dimension of social sciences. Authors are requested to send at least two copies of their manuscript to facilitate the review process. Comments on the papers published in the Journal are also welcome.

The Journal also publishes review articles, and book reviews. Two copies of the book may be sent to the Editor for review.

NOTES FOR CONTRIBUTORS

Articles submitted for the Journal should be original contributions and should not be under consideration for any other publication at the same time; if an article is under consideration by another publication, authors should clearly indicate this at the time of submission.

At least two copies of the article typed in double space on one side of the quarto size paper should be submitted, preferably along with a computer diskette copy of the article processed on Word Star, or any other word processing software that is convertible into Word Star to the Editor of this Journal. Soft copy can be sent to mail ID of Editor.

Author’s name, affiliation, address, acknowledgement, etc., should appear only on a separate cover page. The author should indicate in the covering letter that the material is his/her own original contribution.

A short abstract of the paper should also be enclosed.

Figures and tables should be clearly produced ready for photographic reproduction.

The authors are entitled to 10 off-prints on payment and a copy of the issue in which their article appears.

Authors are suggested to follow standard styles in the preparation of the manuscripts. • Simple references without accompanying comments should be inserted in the text in parenthesis, with the name of the author, year of publication and page numbers, e.g., (Naik, 1972, pp.23-25).

• References with comments should appear as end notes, denoted by a superscript number in the text; but references in the end notes will be in the same style as above.

• All references should be alphabetically arranged at the end of the text. Style should follow: author’s name, forename/initiais, date of publication in parentheses, title of publication (bold in case of a book, and in italics in case of an article, and the source, journal or book bold), place of publication, publisher, page numbers, and any other additional information. Journal articles should contain complete information regarding volume number, issue number, date, etc. A few examples are as follows:

A brief note about the author should also be included on a separate page.
